

From the Grand Guardian,

Well. What an awesome time with our Supreme visitors. I hope everyone had a chance to chat with them and gain some wisdom from their visit. I know they had a great time and enjoyed our hospitality. I want to thank all the daughters and adults who helped and participated during the visit. Without team effort it would not have been such a success. Thanks Arizona Job's Daughters!

I had a chance to speak with them and gained some more insight as to our status. Supreme has been impressed with our progress. Let's keep this momentum going.

Our next big event will be campout. Information has been sent out to the bethels and is available on the website. Speaking of the website, if any bethel or Daughter has something they wish to publish send it in to the editor. Remember to have your Guardian approve the item first.

I hope everyone has a great holiday season and we will talk soon.

CAV TRAINING

INSTALLATIONS

Keep an eye out for the upcoming installations. Make your plans to travel to at least one of them.

Take a prospect to one and explain what is happening. This is a great opportunity to showcase our Order.

Dear Arizona Job's Daughters:

Prepare yourselves for

Campout 2010

Castles & Cold Nights!

Campout, as you may or may not know, is our annual weekend gathering for a Grand Bethel meeting, competitions, food, skits, teepeeing, and sisterhood.

This year is action-packed and super exciting. We will be holding competitions that include the Triangle Award, Table Decorations, and one Bethel will be given the Spirit Award, so matching t-shirts, chants, and high enthusiasm are all encouraged!

Friday

- Bethel No. 2 Official Visit
- S'mores at camp!
- Games

Saturday

- Grand Bethel meeting
- Grand Guardian Council meeting (for adults)
- Capture the flag!
- Indoor games (like Apples to Apples!)
- Crafts
- "To Tweet or Not to Tweet"
- Skits and awards!
- Rededication!
- Dance party!

Sunday

- Church service
- Check out

Remember that this is a great experience for prospects! Keep in mind, our statewide membership drive. What a better way to show a friend how fun and exciting this organization is, than by bringing her to Campout!

Grand Bethel officers will not need to memorize parts unless otherwise informed. The Grand Bethel committees should be getting ready to present at the meeting. Contact Christina with any questions about that.

Attached is the registration form. Campout this year will cost $75 per person. Please note the turn in date of December 31, 2009. We have given you as much time as possible to complete your registration, yet still allow Mr. Meyer time to coordinate our accommodations with Friendly Pines Camp. We would GREATLY appreciate any early registrations; Refunds can be given, up until January 8, 2010. If you can't come for the entire weekend ☺, a Saturday-Day Fee is $25, and a single meal fee is $7.

Campout questions can be directed to me. I'll see you at Campout 2010, Castles & Cold Nights!

Jobie Love,

Anne Stegen, Grand Bethel Senior Princess

SATIN ROBE QUESTION

Several Job's Daughters have requested that they be permitted to wear satin robes. With that I have a short questionnaire for you to fill out.

Thank you,

Mary Jean Koch/Grand Guardian

- 1. Have you heard of satin robes
Y (19)      N (2)
- 2. Who would wear the robes...?
  - a. The entire bethel?
Y (10)      N (4)

- b. The top 5 officers?
Y (5)      N (5)

- c. The top 3 officers?
Y (3)      N (6)

- 3. Would you pay $45 or more for a satin robe?
Y (5)      N (16)

- 4. Could your bethel pay for all new robes?
Y (6)      N (11)

- 5. Should the entire state change to satin robes?
Y (4)      N (15)

Other comments:

The robe should make everyone equal. Not only one girl should wear the satin robe. I don't like satin robes because they don't glow, they are expensive, hard to clean, and hot to wear. We have other things that need to be resolved. Once we are a strong jurisdiction then we can consider the change. Aren't we all supposed to feel equal? That is why we are wearing the same thing; some girls can't afford satin robes. Satin robes will not stay together as long. After hemming the robes it will show holes. I think it is stupid and I don't want to do it. Satin is a hassle. You don't get stains out and holes are noticeable. I think it is a bad idea. I prefer cotton. Arizona is hot.

Grand Guardian decision:

Due to the overwhelming number against their use here is what I have decided.

To a few Daughters the satin robe was made for them by someone special. If the Daughter is being installed as the Honored Queen she may wear the satin robe before or after the installation for picture taking. During the ceremony an Arizona traditional cotton robe will be worn.

I hope this satisfies those few Daughters with satin robes yet adheres to the wants of the majority of Arizona Job's Daughters.
